

Disclaimer

This website is not publicly promoted yet. It is designed for our clients to see what we have done, what packages we have, who Adrienne Papp is, what has Atlantic Publicity, Atlantic Publisher, etc.... achieved and show you our clients as samples in terms of placement.

When our 200 minutes CNN start running, this Youthful and Ageless™ Bringing Information to Billions, An Honorable Cause website will only have the following tabs / pages and the text on those pages will switch over to talk to the consumer and will no longer talk to our clients. The consumer will ONLY see:

- 1) The Home page: both videos will be gone, every link will be gone and only the text edited with the signature of Adrienne Papp will remain, which is addressing the consumer. The text will go through an editing process.
- 2) The page " Our Work and it sub tabs" will also be gone. The consumer does not need to know that information. It was designed for you to understand what we do.
- 3) The rest of the tabs will stay but the text will address the consumers and will be edited. The sponsors you will see here will sponsor academic research ONLY.

Thank you. We are proud of this simple but much needed program.
